Dear General:

STATOTHR

You sent me a letter from [REDACTED] about employment with the U. S. Army Reorientation Division of the Office for Occupied Areas in Japan.

I first shopped him within the Agency and found he had been thoroughly considered previously and there was no place for him. I then had the Office for Occupied Areas queried and they reported that they had no openings and no funds and are cutting their staff.

STATOTHR

I am not aware where else [REDACTED] might file employment, so you may wish to drop him a line that nothing has turned up. He has already had a rejection letter from this Agency.

Sincerely,

LAWRENCE R. HOUSTON
